

“GTP” Separators & Systems

☆ General Treatment Products Inc. is introducing a full line of centrifugal separators and separator systems. Our highly efficient solid separation design features true tangential entry, extended purge chamber, vortex tube stabilizer and solids deflection hood. This unique design suppresses fluid turbulence and redirects excess solids back towards the trap plate before it exits through the vortex tube (see diagram below).

